

SAN DIEGO MEMORIAL CHAPEL OBITUARY FORM

Obituary May Include:

1. Name, age, city and state where born and where passed and may include the nursing home or hospital where loved one passed away.

---

---

---

2. Date of death using calendar date. Example: 08/24/2013, time of death is usually not included

---

---

---

3. Personal comments or Eulogy. Example: Beloved husband, wife, mother, sister, brother etc

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

4. Deceased last occupation or employment they were involved in or retired from, how long they worked, what company and any accomplishments they were honored with.

---

---

---

5. Personal or club memberships. Example: Lion's Club or Rotary Club, hobbies, accomplishments. Anything noteworthy that distinguishes something special about their lives.

---

---

---

6. Military Service: include branch of service, dates served, rank, and any awards given.

---

---

---

7. Marriages: (if married more than once, list current spouse's name first.) Date of marriage may be included. Example: Sept 3, 1999 to present. Previous marriages listed in order of most recent and the their respective dates. Wives maiden names and places of birth may also be listed. If the spouse deceased use the term: preceded in death by.....

---

---

---

8. Other family survivors may include children, step children, grandchildren, parents, in-laws, siblings and their spouses, nieces, nephews, etc.

---

---

---

9. Religious Denomination or Affiliation and any ministry or volunteer positions they held.

---

---

---

10. Place and time of memorial or funeral and grave side services. Name of chapel, church, funeral home, or cemetery. Date/hours of viewing if you are having a viewing. Note grave side services to commence immediately following the funeral or memorial service or if it is at a later date, mention that information.

---

---

---

11. Pallbearers can be listed

---

---

---

12. Memorial funds or special contributions in their name. Be specific when listing

---

---

---

13. Contact person's phone number. NEVER give a personal address where reception is. ONLY give this at the service itself.

---

---

---

Obituaries can be as short and concise as possible with minimal information or as lengthy as your budget allows.